

Howdy Shooters. I regret I cannot be here today as I have gone to Illinois to visit my 90 year old parents. I also regret having to give you the word that today is the final shoot for Tombstone Shootist Society. As they say,

"All good things eventually come to an end".

I would like to thank some special folks who were instrumental in the success of this club.

Mean Dawg Loomis for writing and setting stages for us.

Blaze Kincade for writing stages before Mean Dawg and who was the inspiration for the Wild Bunch matches as well as making the awards.

Gilly for always helping out whenever and wherever we needed help. He taught me and Mike about the computer and also posted scores on our website.

2-Shot, Mike, for doing registrations, and score keeping as well as setting steel and painting targets.

And August West for being a valuable part of Wild Bunch by writing stages and emailing them out to shooters.

Terri and I sincerely appreciate your support to Tombstone Livery Stable and Tombstone Shootist Society.

All things come to an end, but don't be sad.

Remember the good times and just be glad,

Be thankful my friends, for the fun that we had!

Thank You all very much my friends!
